

ABSTRACTS

The first Korea's Copyright Act was legislated in 1957, and thereafter has been amended several times. Among them, the first amendment in 1986 resulted from the bilateral agreement between Korea and US, and a couple of amendments in mid-1990s reflected Korea's accession to the TRIPS and the Berne Convention. Since the first legislation, Korea has acceded to many copyright treaties to join the international copyright order. This paper deals with the development of international copyright system, and how the international copyright order has been adopted in many countries including Korea. For this, it delves into the development of international copyright treaties from the mid-1800s to the mid-1990.
